Tour & Travel Itinerary

Day 1

Arrive in Sevierville and enjoy a quick and hassle-free check-in at one of Sevierville's accommodations. Sevierville offers the newest lodging properties in the Great Smoky Mountain Region. With over 4,000 rooms, Sevierville is your group destination. Sevierville offers the lowest lodging tax rate in the Smoky Mountains - at just 2% - which can mean a lot when bringing a large group to the Smokies.

For dinner, take your group to one of Sevierville's many outstanding restaurants. We offer a variety of cuisine at prices that are sure to please any group. For the best ribs in the Smokies, try Tony Gore's Smoky Mountain BBQ & Grill.

Day 2

Have a hearty breakfast at Flapjack's Pancake Cabin in Sevierville where the pecan pancakes were named one of the top 204 food finds in the south by Southern Living (2003). Then head downtown Sevierville to make a photo with Sevierville's favorite hometown girl, Dolly Parton. A bronze statue of the music legend is located on the lawn of the Sevier County Courthouse.

Depart for a tour of the Great Smoky Mountains National Park with a step-on guide and local storyteller. They will tell you all about the most visited national park in the United States. Begin your visit with a stop at the Sugarlands Visitor Center at the entrance to Great Smoky Mountains National Park. There you'll find a nature museum and informative film about the park as well as plenty of rangers to ask about park activities. For added fun pick up a delicious pre-packed meal before you leave town and enjoy a picnic lunch in the mountains.

For dinner, enjoy southern cooking at its finest at Applewood Farmhouse Restaurant. This historic farmhouse is located on a working apple orchard with over 4,000 apple trees and showcases the down-home cooking Sevierville is known for. After dinner, leave time to stroll through the Apple Barn Complex where you watch cooks frying apple pies, candy makers drawing taffy and vintners creating fanciful wines.

Tonight, see a baseball game at Tennessee Smokies Stadium where the team is the Double-A affiliate of the Chicago Cubs.

Day 3

Depart for Dollywood, named for Sevierville's hometown girl, Dolly Parton. This Smoky Mountain theme park was voted one of the world's best! Spend the day enjoying live entertainment (over 40 live shows are performed each day), award winning thrill rides, delicious meals, shopping, authentic mountain craft demonstrations and more!

Plan a dinner to suit everyone at Golden Corral. This restaurant's 100 item buffet offers an incredible variety. Or take your group to Cracker Barrel for great food and shopping.

Speaking of shopping, make sure to schedule time for your group to learn why Sevierville is the Shopping Capital of the Great Smoky Mountains. Find rock-bottom prices on high-end brands like Coach, Michael Kors, Polo Ralph Lauren and more at the 100+ outlet Tanger Five Oaks Factory Outlet Center.

Day 4

Enjoy a continental breakfast at your hotel and a hassle free check-out. On your way home, visit Bass Pro Shops or Smoky Mountain Knifeworks for last minute gifts and souvenirs.

Thanks for visiting us and remember to make plans for your next Sevierville / Smoky Mountain vacation.
