

Good Food with Good Friends

Sevierville, Tennessee is the Official Destination for Girlfriends' Getaways® and there's no shortage of great places to catch up over good food (with a side of fun).

Planning a girlfriends' getaway? You're going to need some great places to eat in Sevierville. Fortunately, there are plenty of places to order up food and fun in this Smoky Mountain town. Build these options into your Girlfriends' Getaway itinerary.

East Tennessee Billiards

easttnbilliards.com

This new restaurant features elevated pub food, craft beer, and a family-friendly pool hall vibe. Six diamond pool tables put the focus on fun with friends. Make a break for this unique eatery and also enjoy live music on most Friday and Saturday nights.

Graze Burgers

grazeburgers.com

Graze Burgers serves up artisan burgers piled high with delectable toppings in the heart of historic downtown Sevierville. Start with the Pig Wings (crispy double pork belly) and a Buffalo Bluegrass cocktail, then polish off a Southern Jam burger – with Parmesan and Russet Truffle Fries. Enjoy the atmosphere of the historic space (it was the Sevierville Post Office over 100 years ago) or dine outside on their open-air patio. Graze has live music on select evenings.

Hickory Cabin BBQ

Downtown Sevierville's food scene is growing quickly – but Hickory Cabin has been a downtown staple for a while. This hole-in-the-wall BBQ joint specializes in pulled pork and wings served up in a variety of delectable dishes. Plan a stop for lunch or grab dinner Wednesday through Saturday when they're open until 9pm. Just around the corner, discover curated provisions at Beyond 436 boutique – one of the newest shops to open in Historic Downtown Sevierville.

Local Eatery & Grill

localeaterygrill.com

Plan a karaoke or live music night with your friends and enjoy a local delicacy for dinner. The Big Fat Bologna Sandwich is a one-of-a-kind treat: a ½ pound of smoked bologna on a bun with your choice of cheese. Delicious and different! Visit The Local Eatery & Grill Facebook page for information about upcoming events.

Ristorante Della Santina

ristorantedellasantina.com

The Della Santina family has a long history of providing excellent food and service that stretches back to 1420 in Verona, Italy. Today, their quaint restaurant is tucked away on the banks of the Little Pigeon River providing a peaceful dining experience to enjoy with friends. Find fresh and seasonal cuisine on the menu and be sure to order the Tiramisu, which is made from scratch daily. Open Tuesday through Saturday beginning at 3pm.

Seasons 101 & Sky Lounge

seasons101.com | 101skylounge.com

Tuck into a cozy booth at Seasons 101 for a weekend brunch or lunch or dinner throughout the week. An ever-changing selection of signature dishes and cocktails inspired by the current season is at the heart of this chef-driven restaurant's dining philosophy. After dinner, head to the roof and enjoy a cocktail at Sky Lounge, the Smokies' only rooftop dining experience. Both Seasons 101 and Sky Lounge are located in The Central Hotel – a boutique property in the heart of downtown Sevierville.

The Axe House & Pizza at the Cove

axehousetn.com

As a World Axe Throwing League affiliate, The Axe House Sevierville is a top-notch facility whose certified coaches will have you and your friends throwing in the big leagues in no time at all! Put on some cute closed-toe shoes and plan an evening of fun competition and delicious food from The Axe House's on-site restaurant, Pizza at the Cove.

The Appalachian

theappalachianrestaurant.com

Oftentimes, local culture is best experienced through food. At The Appalachian, Chef David Rule celebrates traditional Appalachian dishes with a modern twist – preparing much of the menu on an open hearth. Buffalo frog legs, rainbow trout, and locally raised beef are only a few of the mountain staples available – and the menu often changes to highlight each season's best offerings. Just before dinner, strike out on the Downtown Sevierville Historic Walking Tour. Over 40 points of interest, murals, and markers can be found in downtown Sevierville – making for a fun stroll before a delicious dinner.
